

me worse than I am, for I am really glad to part for my friends & only say this in fun - we have not seen Miss Paine since you left, so carriage comes now to take us where we will - it is a grand thing to be popular in the park! with kind greetings to Mr. Denton & William, we are not to go to the school (I have written to you) I think a cousin of my name (I think) from another you & very affably same that on

you today, as very busy arranging for your party tonight. We are all remembering it in prayer.
 I told Mr. & Mrs. Parlman, Miss Dora Allen, Mr. Ken
 W. Blake & W. Weston
 Jones, all people of prayer about it & they were all much interested in it

We are glad you allow us to have the privilege of sharing in this effort to win souls & trust it may be most abundantly blessed. I hope someone may have time to tell us about it.
We missed you very much & were only sorry that we had let you go, when we found that you were fairly away. I wish I could accept the invitation you kindly sent me for tonight, I should indeed like to be present.
We have had lovely weather since you left, as mild as when you were here, but bright & spring-like.
Many people have expressed their regret at the shortness of your visit, as they were desirous of making your acquaintance & showing you, I know not what attention, so you see you have not yet exhausted the resources of this dear town of Toronto & must promise to come back soon & explore them farther.

I am going to try & console myself for the loss of my visit to Montreal, by a little visit to Mrs. Blake.
It seems rather funny to pay a visit in Toronto & so very near home; but I am very fond of her & she wants me, so I am going for a few days, some time soon.

Flowers come in abundantly from various quarters, a lovely group from Christina yesterday, with the aid of Dr. Dawson's Moss, we make much of them.

I should have so much to say, were I beside you; but this morning, I seem incapable of writing any but a stupid "outsidy" letter if you know what that means.

My China painting goes on, you know how anxious I was (being of a torrid mind) to get rid of, well, one friend has sent me a coffee pot, & another a flower vase & I begin to fear only too much work, as the remuneration will not certainly much increase the mistake fund - Thanks being untransferable! However don't think

I am really glad to hear me write them I am!
