

J. S. Wilson
Acc. 976

117, Bloor St.

Toronto.

April 24th

Dear Mr. Dawson

I have put off writing to you, until I knew definitely what our plans were. Now we have taken our passages in the Sardinian which sails June 5th & I hope to be able to be in Montreal about the 15th of May, if I can get ready by that time. Will it suit you to have me at that time?

I was so glad to hear the very best of news from you, about Eva, it draws one so much closer, when we have a common love for the dear Lord Jesus. I do indeed rejoice with you all in this joy, which has been told in glad notes of praise, in the presence of the angels, & has brought joy to the heart of Christ: no wonder then that we rejoice!

Mother has been very poorly for weeks, having one prostration influenza ever after another.

We are glad of the ^{prospect of} change on her account.

We have all been in great distress about Mr. George Brown. He is still hovering between life & death; but there is hope - Mr. Brown is so calm & sweet in this terrible time of anxiety.
Papa bids me thank you gratefully for your kind thoughts about lunch for him; but there was no need of any & Anna had supplied him with bananas.

Of course we expect D^r Gage to take up his quarters here, I don't know, when he comes; but we shall be glad to see him, whenever he likes to come.

And now dear Mr. Danton
I must say good night, reserving all my news, until I am sitting beside you & then I shall have much to say.

With kindest greetings from us all to D. Danton & your sons & much love to yourself Anna & Eva Believe me
Yours very aff^{ly}
Samie Wilson