

Will you kindly give me from the enclosed note as I don't know her address & I regret to say that she is not so dishonorably insists on keeping
two separate books of accounts. And the price of goods
is so low that we should indeed have been things

I wrote the address & your name on May 5th & here a whole fortnight has elapsed & I have said no more -

It will not do any good to fill my letter with excuses, so I will just trust to your believing that it was not because I was not often thinking of you -

It is very kind of you to ask us to visit you at Antis & your company forms a very great attraction; but we

3
Mamma & me to occupy your spare room - All our pleasant recollections of Metic's are connected with you all & I am sure it will require much to compensate for the absence of such congenial society, in the new place we are going to seek out.

I am quite well & everyone tells me that I am looking better far, than I did before; but I don't feel strong, the least thing tires me & even if I do nothing I am tired. - The D^r. recommends change of air, so Aunt & I are going up to Collingwood next week to visit our kind friends Mr. & Mrs. Parlour -

The Doctors made such a fuss about my taking cold baths that I don't think I could venture to bathe at Metic's & I do want to get the benefit of salt-water.

Papa had a note from Mr. Bridgeman Simpson, in which he speaks gratefully of Dr. Dawson's kindness, & Papa desires me to thank you for it. He is a very nice person & has many friends here & I fancy was feeling lonely in a new town. I got a nice letter from Anna the other day, enclosing such a good photo. of herself & baby, will you thank her for both, & will I write & do to myself.

Mamma sends you her kindest love & joins with me in loving thanks for your kind invitation to us.

We are having lovely spring days & trees & flowers are coming out & growing almost visibly.

We have just had a week of very meetings. I was only at two afternoon bible readings. One of them given by W. Pearson of Chicago on the Atonement, I much enjoyed, it was so beautifully clear.

With kindest love to all from us all Believe me Yours affectionately Jane Wilson

have decided this summer to go to an American Water^{ing}place somewhere near Boston I think.
They want me to have warm bathing & we are so anxious to induce Papa to remain with us all the time, as his complete rest last summer, has been such a benefit to him all through his winter's hard work.
He likes the idea of being near Boston, so that if he grows tired of the seaside, he ^{can} run into town & get into the Museums & literary rooms there -

Aunt who is with us is going to visit her daughter-in-law, while we are away -

We all thank you most gratefully for your kindness in writing!
