Bye bye

all to Miss: Sumner - Paper had received two papers from Sir Wm on the interesting subject of the Higher & of women -
 I must thank you for your nice long letter to Mother, as we all enjoyed it with kindest regards to Sir William & to Eva, Anna & yourself & yours very truly
 Cyril Wilson

not mean to let so many days pass without sending you & Anna our congratulations about the new son, who has come to share your love - I am so glad it is a boy, & I can wish for him & you nothing better than that he may grow up to be a devoted worker for Jesus & early enter his service - Our souls have been stirred to their depths during Mr. Moody's three days visit to this city - We left home as soon as breakfast was over, the servants taking day about - When we reached the Metropolitan

Church, even at that early hour, there were crowds about the door & when they were opened an hour before the meeting, in 3 minutes the place was crammed. I joined the choir & so was able to get in peacefully & get a seat. At ~~noon~~ <sup>one o'clock</sup> every one was obliged to leave the church; but they only retired to the nearest shops to snatch a bite & went back to the gate to wait for the next service. It was a regular Evangelical Alliance - High Church & low, all denominations Brethren & Salvation Army soldiers & I am sure all felt the true link that united them. The evening meetings were only for men; but the choir of course went, so I had that privilege too.

The singing was wonderful, so simple, so sweet & from the heart. Mr. Woodie told us if young man he spoke to in the inquiry room, who said it was the singing of the hymn: "Come to me" that touched his heart & made him want to come - We all feel that we have been taught a new way to use this power of music, so as to win souls for Jesus - It did not seem to matter who spoke, every speaker interested us, for we felt the power & presence of God in our midst & He spoke to us through all - As for Mr. Moody it is wonderful - his voice is back, his grammar back, his manner back, his matter simple & what we knew before; but the power it comes with is from above: Selfish hidden & only Christ is heard -

Then he is full of incidents that he himself has met with & he tells them from his heart -

He never spoke of himself, or only to mention mistakes he had made & to show us how to do better - We just go back to life & its ordinary duties, feeling that we must gladly consecrate them all & do them for Jesus & at the same time we long to win souls, may Jesus renew the blessing day by day, that every Christian may from henceforth be more in earnest than before -

I do think that Toronto is a place to which much, very much is given - How is Miss Lunn? We were so sorry to hear of her accident. Will you give her my love & will you tell her that Mary Thomas, the girl she commended to my care, has been in the Hospital here for weeks very dangerously ill, with Inflammation. She is slowly recovering & seems interested in all, we tell her about the Saviour & the Bible - She is very troubled about $2.00 she owes to some one in Montreal & I promised to send a message trying to raise
