

As to what has been done about the Professor's Chair in the School of Science & there has nothing been done yet: Saturday 31st Sept. closed the receiving testimonials.
(What a funny way I have put A. J. I do not know how many applicants
there are. But they have brought the list down
to two, the one W.
M. Dawson, & the other

My Very Dear Mr. Brown.

I only reached home yesterday Wed. Feeling rather tired that the journey was much more pleasant than I anticipated. That I is dit about myself or my journey I am going to write about at present. I have at once made all the arrangements I could

Mr. Young Man also of distinguished ability & a gold medalist. Both are such good Men ^{that} in either case they will be most fortunate. I should think that there will be very close competition -
But I do trust one Man will be the one chosen. If I can learn any thing more I will let you know at once
as far as I could learn.

The time has not been fixed for deciding
I wish I could have told you something more definite - I found on getting back a letter from Anna I shall try to see the girl to-morrow & let her
know the result.

I was persuaded to remain over Monday in Boston nothing would quell Mr Carpenter's kindness. Met Dean

at sea on Saturday
 the German yacht
 there also. They seem to have upon it
 some. We had so many delays on the
 that were had I
 going on at once
 but have done the
 having gone on getting
 mine from church
 Sunday we found Fenwick waiting to see me & her husband being
 out of town

I have a letter from the boat
 between

 some
 of
 out of town

She waited with us and in the evening we had a pleasant time some
the little studying good word. Recalling to us - the many delightful
evenings at your truly consecrated house. Do not such times bring a much peace to our loved absent friends
I am sure they do.

I found three charming letters from Dublin lately for me, the Dr has gone to Coblenz

And I found every thing right here, but was a day - for let a moth venture to invade the shut up house, the garden looking very much better than I well have anticipated. How much my dear friend
 have we to thank our dear heavenly Father for all his good ref- in - joining mercies; the safe keeping of our Home And not the least one

Has been the pleasant pleasant intercourse with you & all your household My recollections of that time will be that of a pleasant place with a very sense of the I take you with me by journeying just when
and I hope you will
by the sea & I will find I must see you
with the upping how deeply grateful I feel
to Dr Dawson & myself for
