Jadousac June 8th
1868.

My Dear Anna,

I am now settled at Jadousac at the hotel, there are very few people here at yet but we expect more soon.

The people now here are

Mrs Ogden who lives in St Catherine street I think and her two little children.

Her sister from Upper Canada

Mrs Dow from Montreal,

Young Mr Redpath and his wife who used to be Mrs

Wills, and their child.

That's ~~just~~ young Mrs Windham his little sister, little brother, and two governesses (one for each of the youngsters).

Mrs Ogilvie is very nice but has rather a fishy expression her sister ditto, with curls and freckles; Miss Dow rather good looking. Mr Windham as usual, little Miss Windham an awful tomboy, and her little brother one of the cross, mischievous most spoiled youngsters you ever saw.
I had a nice sail in a beak-bark canoe the other day all about the bay.

I do not finish the account of the Union returning ashore for Maria told me before she left that she had asked papa to send her letter out to you.

Maria intended leaving on Wednesday but the Union being disabled there was no boat that day so Rankine and

last Sunday evening.

I cannot write you a long letter for I have to write so many this just, I shall not write any more to you at the Browns for I suppose you will be going home soon.

Please remember me to all the Browns and thank Dora for her correction with regard to the "Lightning Bug".

Believe me your affectionate brother George.
