My dear Anna,

you must not think that "out of sight" is in my case, exactly "out of mind" and knowing as you do, what an immense amount of lazyness I have to do this warm weather; I got over a good deal of it yesterday afternoon lying among the hay with O'H and so feel easier in any mind.

If I had lots on news I would make this a long letter but all I have none I'm doubtful whether it will attain the proportions of a letter at all.

We are going to start for Fadousa on Monday morning at 7 o'clock. The steamer goes down as far as Quebec stops there all night and starts for M. B., C., & I., next morning some people are going all the way in the Union and others (Mrs Caspatee among the number) are going down on the Quebec boat intending to get on the Union Tuesday morning.

Which by the by reminds me that Robert gave me, last night a very nice book "to read at the seaside" the book is on the side table but I cant be bothered getting up to find the right name, anyway its something about the Abyssinian tributaries of the Nile by Baker. Papa has got me a very nice gun to amuse myself with at Ladousac. We had a preliminary trial of it the other evening and of course everybody must have a shot so we riddled an unfortunate little box and cut a row of peas into salad. I intend taking to Tatousac a few amusements comprising among others, a gun, fishing rod, aquarium, telescope, microscope, jar of spirits, Jewsharp &c. I am seriously thinking of getting a fiddle, tambourine, banjo or guitar, but have not yet decided which, if any.

The stillness in the house is so great that "all my ears are buzzing round" as W said, which brings to my mind that Eva is away, please give her my love. Just as I'm finishing (of course) I have suddenly remembered a whole lot on news but I'll preserve it ⁱⁿ writing ^{this} letter ^{your} affec tion ^{remain} even after ^{brother} George.
