July 2

Dear Anna

I write
a few lines now & say that I have received your letter
and am happy that you enjoy yourself so much, though we cannot thank you
a strong measure
of all society, and I know your letter

is not a little path
from the surface.

There not yet
heard anything from Mamma & George; but expect a letter to Mamma

The Edinburgh
election has been again postponed to the 6th July - Wed Monday. There is and party spent about it, & not a
of electors want Simpson and the receipt of the Professor's plan sent against him.

Whether in the stage I have any chance remains
doubtful at present.
I can get only 3 votes
to go, and it may be the same on the 6th; but I will do what is best. The weather is very hot here

but I hope we shall soon have a throater & some of us it. We shall be glad to see you when you come, and shall share our strawberries
with you, and the cherry birds.

Love and kisses
to you, and all kind regards to the Deans

Yours
Lapa
