Tadoussac August 4th
Tuesday.
1868

Dear Anna,

I got a letter from you last night for which I am much obliged, it was a great deal delayed however by the fog, that is to say the steamer was only came in on Monday afternoon instead of Saturday night.
You must not expect a very brilliant letter for

I was up till twelve last night looking at the stars, and got up this morning at half past three to see a lot of people from the hotel off. We had a beautiful walk over to the wharf just as the day was breaking, and on the way home I went up one of the hills near the Camp sat down there and waited for sunrise, which was beautiful. The only disagreeable thing was the great length of time till breakfast at eight.

Such a lot of people were going away now that the hotel is quite comparatively empty. Our second concert came off with great eclat last Friday I have not got a programme, but the performers were Miss Powell, Miss Hickman, Miss Mc Illree Miss Gough, Miss Mac Donald Mr Rogers, and old Mr Hooyton who sang two of the quickest old songs you ever heard in the quickest manner possible.

Forty three dollars were collected partly by the sale of small bouquets, of which Miss Radford supplied a basketfull, Mrs. Rogers sang a comic Irish song in character splendidly was encored & gave the Irish jaunting car. We had also a band of musicians from the boat consisting of a harp, flute and violin, who played some very nice pieces. After the concert the chairs were cleared out and they had a dance.

Give my love to all at home and believe me your affectionate George
