Dear Anna,

I have received both the paper, and the pamphlets for Hopington safely.

I had a very pleasant boat sail a few days ago with a party of people, we went up the Saguenay two or three miles and then went on shore and had "bit of a peruse" getting some very beautiful moss, and returning to the hotel rather late for tea.

I had another very nice sail or rather row the other day. I went out in a small boat to Lark shoal to look for seaweeds &c.

I had two little french boys to row, and spent a very pleasant time, though without success in the sea-weed line.

Some gentlemen who were up the Saguenay fishing killed a wild-cat on their way down, a few miles from here, it was a very large one, and looked as ferocious as could be.

I was at the Uegubarts for dinner yesterday and had a very pleasant time.

Mrs Darcy, two of her sisters a few of her children, and a young lady relation, came to the hotel en passant last night, they were on their way up the Saguenay.

Some of the Taylors I don't know how many are coming here tonight.

A pic-nicking party are getting off at present for the lake, comprising the greater part of those in the hotel and a good many others.

Give my love to all at home, and believe me your ever affectionate

George
