Dearest Anna

Enclosed a slip from a newspaper giving an account of the Swice of the Royal Socy.
When you have looked at it ask William to enclose it in an envelope to the "Editor of The Spectator" that they may see a little of what I am doing here. I have read a paper at the Royal Socy on Thursday about the new discovery of giving it the place of the "Bakerian Lecture" which entitles me to a whole evening. I shall send a report of this also and hope to write a long letter to you next week

~~With~~ all love to you and William and Ruthie and Eva your loving
Papa

Mamma wrote yesterday in answer to your letter, I dence this now, because I could not get it till too late for yesterday's mail W.D.
