23. If you come
I will be glad to see you at any one of the places I have mentioned to you. I have not yet had a chance to write you as I wish to do so very much I have conquered my reluctance to letter writing in the hope of getting an answer —

I am sorry Mrs. Bell died

Are you coming in to the Founder's Festival? ~~It~~ it takes place on the 2nd

Our public debate was to have taken place on Monday, but the Faculty of Arts have again refused the Hobson Hall, unless we change our subject which is "Should Ireland have a local parliament?"

As there are a great many Graduates in the Society they refuse to be dictated to, and are going to apply to the Governors for the use of the Hall, in fact there will be a big row & I should not wonder if the Public Debates were to give up all together.

Alfred is going out a great deal this winter coming home about 3 All three or four times a week and he begins to feel pretty well "used up."

We are very busy in the office since the New Year opened and sometimes kept protesting notes till 7 P.M.
But I like ~~more~~ more every day and J. C. Griffin is such a jolly Boss, I have been interrupted while writing this about four or five times, and am very lucky I have managed to finish it. Wishing you a pleasant time I remain yours sincerely
