

Hotel Bonora
Buenos Aires
March 2/93

Dear Anna,

I write a few lines to thank you very sincerely on behalf of mamma and myself, for your wise and thoughtful letter of the 27th, received this evening. We have read it once, but shall read it again with care, and weigh well all that it contains and implies, and

shall answer more fully next week, say
many thanks for it,

Young Church called here yesterday, but did not leave his address, and I have been inquiring in vain for him in Augusta.
James he merely passed through en route to some other place.

Mr Crawford of Jackson
Road is here, & his wife.

We have got Newspapers with reports of

The great meetings; but I found very imperfect.

Love to you and Bernard and to all the children and thanks to all friends for their good wishes public and private

Yours ever

Wm Lloyd Garrison

PS This is merely to acknowledge your letter, as the mails are so slow, mine hereafter
