My dear Anna,

When I left Montreal yesterday, Walter was talking of paying a visit to Mrs Pepin's at Montebello, from which I tried to dissuade her, for I think that in her present state of health it would be very risky. I do not know whether she has reconsidered the matter, but if you think so I do, you will endeavor to persuade her to remain at home. On arriving here yesterday I happened to meet Mr Peter Redpath at the Station & got him to take Candy with me at the Club. Today he was to be in Montreal & I think we doubtless will meet him. He is looking remarkably well.

I have been proposing, in an indefinite kind of way to go to the exhibition at Chicago before it closes, at the end of next month, but do not Feel very keen about it.

 If I should arrange thro could you manage to get away lay enough to go also as my guest? If so it might help me to wake up my mind. There no doubt there is much to see & by talking the seeing of it not too much an grand serious, it might not be very folly.
 I think a week at Chicago

Should be enough. Think of it & let me know what you decide within a day or two.

I believe it would be a great advantage to you to sit away from family cares for a few days - just as a change.

Yours
Guy
