Dearest Anna

I have just come back from Ogilvie
he is sending the wool. I had not forgotten it, but first we have had so much rain & then I did not feel all right & I try to be careful for my friend's sake. I hope the wool will be right & you know how thankful I am to be able to do anything for you.

I am so ²thankful you seem to be settled & comfortably. You two
dear ones. Thinking of you I always think of the parable of the fig tree. I know that ^{so} many cures have been there worked. Only,
think of Mrs Day's niece who was considered dying. I do hope you will be able to go boating that will be such a pleasure to dear Eric.
I will give Miss Campbell your mepage when I see her.

She was here last Monday P.M.
& several others whom I should have liked to see, but for a wonder I was out. Your dear Mother got Mr McDonald's carriage & was good enough to let me share it. We were 2 hours out & I was very tired so that I could not enjoy the children, but they amused themselves.

Lois is a lovely child & I pray she will grow up thus. Much like dear Edith.

My dearest love to you & dear Eric. Ever your loving

M M Carpenter or Carpie!
