

Very kind letter
to do with Eric.

Dear Anna,

Bernard read
 your letter containing opinion and advice about Eric. I need not say how much mamma
 and I sympathize with you, and how deeply
 we feel for poor Eric's condition. Yet God's hand is not sheltered
 that he cannot save even though doctors cannot

and in any case he knows what is best.
 If you get no farther hope from Dr L., get at least his best ad= vice as to what should be done; and do not think of remaining
 away too long, either
 till bad weather sets in or till Eric be= comes too weak to travel. We have said to Bernard
 that in any ad.=

Satisfaction for me
time is at your service in addition to your own, either for me
or for any of the other children. These are various ways of
managing when he returns, and there will be time for Bernard to discuss them with you, but you can count on us for any thing ~~you~~ we can do.
Mamma received

To day your letter of Sunday, and will attend to the matter
therein.

We pray for you
and sue, and fully
trust that the Lord
will grant all
possible alleviations
of this great trial.

Ever your loving
father
G. W. Adams

P. S. I enclose in back letter this in answer to your letter
