Dearest Anna

You may be thanked that you have not all letters which I write in the spirit to you.

I mean in my heart.

I don't want you to write to me, for Lady D. says you have so very much to write daily. I suppose dear

Eric got mine last week. I saw Dr. B.

this week, he said I must choose my days to go out, not damp & not very cold. So I can't go always with your mother & live in ^{on Fridays} the dark. Yesterday

dear Lois spent the whole day & was so dear & nice. I could send her to Mary now & then, for she is all right. She is lovely & can

amuse herself & is no trouble. Ruth was here last Sunday; I think far very much improved, I hope you have not such a dull day rainy & dark as we have. My dearest love to Eric God bless him!

& you don't forget old Carrie, who wishes she could do something for you Ever lovingly
M M Carpenter
