Sparrows + mountains

Sunday

Dear Anna,

I have been sneaking free time to write a little literature, perhaps not very useful,
Have you seen the New Life of John Bunyan, by Brown I think. It is well spoken of and I had thought of me
quoting about it
This morning I saw
when I awoke two peewees on a bough of the apple tree close to our bedroom window. They

PP 19/10/11
were two sparrows, and they seemed to say "oh
but two sparrows sold for a farthing?" and the bird was a suitable one,
as I had waked up
with my heart burdened by Eric's sleep, and William's long detention in the bad weather at Father Point.
It was an unusually clear morning, in that the mountains near the line were very distinct,
and they preached of the "Mountains around Jerusalem", as emblems

A God's care for his people, So you see I had two sermons in the early morning which have
done me good all day,
and I told them
to Conrad as we walked to church together. He had however a birth-day party on Saturday, and I fear was not in his brightest mood.

Serge is with us today, looking as usual. He will have some red tape
and up science this month owing to Dr. Deluys's absence, but he is so far reconciled to his fate

We are ready concerning about William. He grudges three days to visit Father Point
and now he has been
three weeks there in the cold and wet, and
meeting with all sorts of opposition and losing the time he ought to have had for his reports.

In the summers may the Lord protect and bless him. Fine people seen all well.

Mamma and I send all love and good wishes to you & his. Love yours

George Sevels love,

J. M. Dawn
