My dear Anna,
I wrote to you the other day, addressing Mabel, but was prevented to hear from Florence who called today to announce her departure tomorrow that you had been prevented from coming as you had intended, by Poppy's further illness. It is

Certainly most unfortunate.
Let me know if there should be anything I can do for you in Bernard's absence. I can always run down for a day
if needed.

Yours
Leaves
