June 10/96/96

Dear Anna,

We leave here
this morning for London, and I am writing to take the New York Mail, to say that yesterday
we received Court's a/c, of which I shall enclose copy. It amounts to $71.94, besides an unsettled balance of Nine Dollars, about the fee, which Mamma

does not remember about.
You may therefore give him at once $50,
out of the money in your hands, and if,
on going to Mexico you
and Florence are satisfied with the work done, you can give him the remainder. This will leave an unsettled balance on his contract of I think about $24 which I can remit on leaving your deposit of the work done on the contract as stated in the papers I left with Bernard.

I shall send this to Munroe, in case you have been detained,

but hope it will find both you and Florence snugly settled at Little Metis.

We leave all here
well, and hope to meet Rankine at the station.

Should you still be in Montreal, kindly send the enclosed to Cavill,

With all love to you and yours

Your affectionate father
