My dear Anna,

Your of Thursday has duly received. I hope soon to know that you arrived safely & comfortably at Metz, notwithstanding your hurried departure & that baby is well & likely to benefit by the change. The late but weather in this part of the world, with prospect of continuance, will make us glad to be safely at the sea.
Let me know if you get any further news from England. I fancy that they will write to me rather than to me & assume that I may hear.

The only subject of discussion here now is the result of the Election on Tuesday & it will be a great blessing when the whole thing is safely over & past.
No one can form any good opinion as to the result, for the fight is so much mixed & so many different things affect different parts of the Country. The wild extremities made on either side seem to show, taking a mean, that the result will be close.
We will probably know the whole thing here by ten or eleven o'clock on Tuesday night. Tell Bernard that I will telegraph him the result that night or soon as it seems certain. He will doubtless be interested although you are probably not particularly so.

Yours
George
