My dear Anna,

I return you
Clara's letter enclosed, having read it with much interest. She certainly seems to be getting all the chances possible in connection with her trip and to be laying up a store of observations. Her letters

Must also be very interesting to the other children for whom she acts as special, Commissioner.

We are getting very pleasant together here at present, not at all too hot, but I fear that that way we are decidedly Cool at Metis.

I am inclined to think with you that it was perhaps unwise for William to leave St. Agathe

3

When the place under the patronage & benediction of that pious person seemed to suit him so well. It may not be wise to swap Saints while Crossing a River. He might try Ste Anne de la Perade or some other reliable One. Mirac will not do at all for anything but rough external complaints, being wholly unsanctified. I do think he should Get away from family surroundings & Keep away for his whole holiday where he would see nothing but new faces.

Yours
Gerrit;
