

Egerton Park
July 1902

Dearest Mrs Nelson,

I have wanted
so often to write to you again but - it is not always easy to do so, when wandering here & there but you may be sure I have often thought of you, & rejoiced to hear of you walking up & down your hall, & again of your "being out in your beautiful garden". I was also very glad to hear that Dr Martin had told Bernierot that it would be quite safe for you to go to Inlet - for the thought of summer heat for you, troubled me, & before I left we arranged that you should have seen room of the study, & then you could shut off the rest of the household at pleasure, & have command of both back & front galleries. I am sure you would regain your strength better there. However you know Bernard will gladly make every arrangement to suit you, & no one could do it better.

I had a delightful time in Edinburgh, my fine new basket trunk, made me a stylish traveller, I have wanted one for a long time & got it with your money. While in Edinburgh, I went up the Forth by boat to Stirling, & also up to Blair Athol as myself had to run up there about a summer cottage.

We drove about a good deal but I saw the lovely hills, & the at pass of Helliikraukki, & the the weather was beautiful.

Miss Wilson lives in a flat & the view from her window is lovely, & we just had a beautiful peaceful time together.

Now I am again with Eva & the weather is more summer like, & we can sit in the garden, & not shiver. We may go to London, next week but have not quite decided

I was so glad to hear that my husband & Keith had got safely to Melis, for he has had a very heavy struggle this spring in various ways, & sadly needed some rest. I hope you too have got down to sea breezes.

I shall now have to do a little shopping, one really is tempted by seeing so many pretty things reasonable, but after all one does not need much.

With dear love,
Eva's kindest greetings
Affectionately yours
Anna Harrington
