Dear Mother,

The weather lately has just been perfect I am sitting on our bathing house now so please excuse bad writing.

Oliver Baigue is still with us but is leaving on Tuesday. We all went to church this morning and had a very nice sermon.

I was out flounderspering ~~so~~ yesterday afternoon & caught nearly three dozen flounders in about half an hour. I think that it is about time we had some bad weather now after so much fine and if I have had that last them they are in her hands chief still I think I will have to get a new name because Poppie is into bed and Blare is going to read Kelly's teachers and what they learned to I said and I so good bye from Eva still once I missed the summer

I would like to see a one I want to see I want to see the
to come you at two and I want to see
