Dear Mr. Harrington,

My wife & I beg to offer you all
our most sincere

sympathy in your irreparable loss.

We all admired so much the wave fight.

which he made &
the way you all
helped him to do so.

I do not think
there is a single person connected with McPill who will not think of him

With respect &
affection &
wonder for his loss.
I feel that I have lost in him a friend whose charm
of nature always
appealed to me
strongly.

Yours very sincerely
J. P. Walton
