Lady Harrington

Dec. 4. 07

Dear Mrs Harrington

I feel a "card of sympathy" all insufficient to say how much we think of you. how much we care that he is gone from you.

"Liked? It was 'loved' - Yes, loved - it was quite extraordinary how everyone felt towards him - I knew they were talking of an evening's too - for I have often heard the same thing said before -

The other day I happened to come into the room where Sir George & Arthur
(the sick son) were talking together - &
I just heard Sir George say "He was very much liked, I believe"
& Arthur said

Can anything better
be said of us than
that:

- I know that the comfort which you have had in your mutual
love in the years that are past is your most precious thought & memory. That in its deeper sense this "comfort"

will always be yours,
for it came with love
& the love is yours
& his & God's for ever.

You will believe me Yours with affectionate regards & sympathy

Julia Drummond.
