Dear Mrs. Harrington, On my return from New York City last week I learned the very sad news of dear Doctor Harrington's departure from this world.
We all loved him & his sweet influence will ever widen & spread in the sudden time of days.

I feel that I have lost a friend - a counsellor & a most genial soul & spirit. Whenever we met - not often - it was always a pleasure & profit to me.

I wish to extend to you my most sincere & hearty sympathy - also to the members of your family - not forgetting your good Mother - Lady Dawson.

Had I been in Canada when the sad event took place I should have had the sad duty of being present. Of my professors at McGill he is one of three of whom I can say they were truly dear & friends - as well as kind advisers & helpers. Your good father was another, as you know.

Dear
ans.

With renewed Sympathie in which I am sure my best wofe joins.

I am yours

very sincerely,

H. M. Amis
