

My dear Mrs Harrington,

Our thoughts have been much with you all during these last few days, & though I know that no words of mine can help you I want to tell you how truly we sympathize with you in your great sorrow.

No one who has had the privilege of knowing your dear husband could fail to have a sense of personal loss through his passing out of our sight,

Ruler & the same has truly I feel for them in their grief.

I have that day Dawson has not but short while & that you may be spared any other anxiety over her.

Write her & suggest Synoposis from Dr. Bookman, Ben & the 63rd & all can knowled, Jan, Sec, Mr. Thompson,

Very sincerely yours
Kare A. Bookman

& that makes one realize in some slight degree how great the thank must be in the home of which he has been the head & centre.

For you the loss is irreparable, but for him, what a blessed change to be free from the suffering & the travail which he has borne so bravely & patiently! You must rejoice to think that he is now at peace in the place prepared for him by the Heavenly Father.

Please give my love to Clara &
