

JAMES DOUGLAS,
NEW YORK.

99 JOHN STREET.

Dec 7/07

Dear Mr. Havins:

Excuse my intru-ding on your error. To express our deep sympathy with you - my appreciation of the love not only to University but science sustains of the dedic. from husband. - He is one of those scholars. Now growing fewer - who have in our personal interests under devotion to the institution he served: - for he and certainly set a most inspiring example of unselfish devotion to his fill. - Everyone

Dr Douglas

one recognized & admired <sup>and</sup> ~~it~~, It more so as to remuneration or so inadequate to the amount and quality of the work done. - It seems so long ago since I first met him, helping Hunt - the old quarters of the first great Survey; and with it passing - the last of my old Montreal male friends disappears. - In and from mother remain. - My God help you to bear your loss!

Yours
Douglas