

My dear Mrs Harrington

My thoughts have been much with you during this time of ^{the} sorrow & bereavement. It indeed from the time when I heard that your dear husband lay well remembered - my heart went out to you in tenderest sympathy & thereby have you borne up bravely so heroically ministering to his every need. You have been a bright example of Christian strength to all who know you - whom we know what a loss. I Harrington.

removal to the College & his immediate circle of friends we can understand in a small way. The great joy of his own home - where he was so much needed & loved - - Still we know that - though being dead he yet speaketh - & the power of his life with us, remain, with you all. -

I have got your recollection of Dr. Hays's kind his genius welcome & note.

followed by gifts of those beautiful flowers, which he so loved - -

May the God of all Comfort, Comfort & sustain you in this contrivance. I send you a little booklet - which has helped many -

My dear Mr. Brewster
I have been very glad to see your note and to hear of your success in the field.
I am very glad to hear of your success.
