

McGill Coach
who could know well.

UNIVERSITY CLUB OF HARTFORD
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

Hartford, Conn.
February 26th 1909

My dear Mrs Harrington

It is only at this late date through the accidental receipt of an "Annual Report" from the University that I hear of Dr. Harrington's death in last November. I have hesitated at writing for fear of bringing fresh hurts to mind but cannot refrain from extending to

You my deepest sympathy ~~for~~ in this affliction.

The Doctor's students, even the poor ones, held him in the greatest esteem and affection. He never to my knowledge erred
on the side of severity yet was always just. I well remember <sup>that at</sup> a meeting of graduates in New York City some years ago when we were talking of old times and passing more or less severe structures on certain of our ~~past~~ professors, an informal poll developed the fact that Dr. Harrington stood head and shoulder above his colleagues in our esteem and affection They were well based on his high ability and unfailing gentleness to which oft times we all have paid the tribute of praise - behind his back.

I trust all is going well with you and your family. My kind remembrance
to them all.

If I can be of any assistance to any of you please do not fail to call upon me.

You may be interested to know that I have been married for over a year and am very happy.
My wife, although nearly seven years my junior is an M. A. of Barnard (Columbia University) and was librarian at Wadleigh High School when I

rescued her from the fossil's fate. We have just received (this morning) another
set of volumes on
"Household Economics"
and expect to acquire yet another Cook-book.

Very sincerely yours
Henri Casariat
