

being really useful to you than the willingly pay her wages. I suppose it is useless to offer her $12. I will not entertain the idea of giving her wages & board wages. The ~~idea~~ does not suit you, as a last chance, you can tell her that I will willingly engage to take her to Paris & to send you her address & I will write to her on my return. It will happen that she should get a place that she did not like or one where changes occurred in summer.

In looking over the Catalogue of clothing you sent I noticed the whalebone hats & thought of them - if big sent will be glad to get a pair. Other things noted. Another thing not being used in C<sup>o</sup> Cuba. Instead of using salt water, to put her face in warm water take a handful of dry fine salt - quickly dip the closed head into the water, so as to merely moisten the hat

I wish to enforce the importance of enlisting both Mr & Mrs Baenys' interest & good will.
 & I think we have more influence with Mr D. than you & if I mistake not B. does that advise Peterson. Mr & Mrs Blue too will be prone to mean help if enlisted in the Cause. Surely you have got out the a spoke. Will Bernard accept the Secanship?
 Papa leaves me to explain gossip. I must try to do it abutely. Sewyer's "Dr. James Hall's speech" strikes into a paper he read before the Coleridge Institute.
 Papa himself wrote to the Governor to ask that, or rather to recommend Keble's reappointment.
 Mr. Vicars bitter experience to doctors & lawyers being prepared to Minister arose fr: the withdrawal of exemptions fr: theological students. Johnson the undertaker has given Miss Gaisles the writing required fr: his Principals work & dig, in fr: that can matter with his Secanship, wh: he cannot private.
 I don't think any one can be justified any more than Day can fr: taking giving private lessons to his students. you have said nothing as to your wishes about Eric. Do don't A. I expect you avail occupation of mine or boy. Claim the promise in
