(his father's Rome)

Dearest, Many thanks for the money - also for the good news that the names of Lagan is so far appeared. Good success to the speedy ending of the other tiresome fillings to be done, & with more hope, love, & ~~love~~ I shall look for a not-distant meeting.

I rec'd just some college papers sent here to you, & that may require notice on your part.

I hope the R. B. be see a true report, though I suppose in that case gr. father will be much the easier as to the manner laud We have had just a sprinkle of rain, not enough to relieve the parched country

Great all in your home from me. Eric wishes me to be sure & tell you that he & Edith picked quite a quantity of strawberries yesterday both he & Edith picked without eating, & brought home their baskets full - of course I assisted - your own Anne
