

Thank you letter for
"Life of Logan" by B. J. W. New Haven - Ap. 4 - 1883 ?

My dear Dr. Harrington

The copy of your "Life of Sir William Logan" reached me some ten days ago, just as I was on the point of starting off for a little absence. I am back at work again now, and take pleasure in thanking you very sincerely for your kindness. I have as yet had opportunity only to give the book a cursory examination, but I have seen enough to assure me of its interest and to make me wish to read it carefully. I am glad that the statement of the life and work of so eminent a man should have fallen into such hands as yours.

I trust that the year's work now drawing to a close has not proved too much of a burden to you after the labors of last summer. For myself I am sorry to say that for the past three months my work has been much interrupted by ill health - I am, however, better now though not attempting more than my regular College duties.

If you will allow me to speak of myself still further, I should be glad to tell of my engagement consummated not long since to Miss Caroline Bristol of New Haven - I think that you are acquainted with some of family. I need hardly apologize to you for ~~having~~ giving up the supposed advantages of bachelor student life.

With the best wishes for your own health and that of other members of your family -

Very sincerely

J. Dana
