Amherst, 20th Sept 1883

My dear Bernard

Thanks for your kind letter, duly received. Our arrangement with Prof. Chapman have fallen through. He has delayed at the settling so long that he has not allowed himself time to examine our books properly before the report at which time I suppose he must turn up at the College on his business in the night. I shall give you a little information as far as Mr Macfarlane. Is he a Canadian? Is he a member of the Society?

f. Volume Sep. 83 do you happen to know whether he has had any thing to do in Philadelphia where Iris, [^] what is his mutual address?

Here a string of questions, all of which I hope you will pardon. It is a matter of very great moment with us not to get the report of any man, other than a first class. A part of course I know you would not have mentioned in Macfarlane's name had he not been worthy of your recommendation. An object is to get the best & most reliable report possible.
From a man that is recognized both in England & New York. I was in Mutual a few weeks ago & called at your house but from the Great wired up. So I went over both Colleges. They told me you had not returned from meets. Thanks from you. Kind words. I see would be ought charmed. but I can say you realize the anchor. my power of your children & a house. Two open letters are are just well over an attack of Scarlet fever. They had rather a bad time but an quiet with rest. I suspect two in four is two or three weeks time will heat you up.

And kindest regards to your wife & family Circle Believe me very truly yours
