year I shall to send you a hasty scrap - but if all be well next Friday ought to hear you a more restful & pleasant epistle full of sea breezes & quiet I have really had a dreary week - Clare crying with toothache the best part of 4 nights you may fancy the trio Bopie, Clare & I keeping each other awake each one crasser than the other but that is scarcely fair to Bopie, who really was the most patient & cheerful among us - Mary's wedding too, gave me no end of trouble not alone flowers & flurry but Cassidy made some gross gains mistake about her box of china which finally resulted in the case being sent - here after Mary had gone so I had to improve my acquaintance with W. Boat offices, I made several remarkable discoveries - as to how many & various are our means of transport - I finally discovered the boat & when required - I can't begin to tell you how many things have made themselves into demons for my especial benefit like the old song - in the beautiful Scotch you love so well - "There's nae luck about the hoase, when my good man's awa" - However having had a good sleep last night - I Brewster giving me hope that Clare's tooth will be appeased in time to have it - filled Saturday three of my packages being roped up - & a large sum of money paid away relieving me from the heavy burden of health, I begin to feel more cheerful - Carry has been most - exceedingly kind in driving me about & in taking the children, she has even arranged to have her washing on yesterday & visited the 8 to dinner on Friday night - will be quite a relief to me Care has total pass a funny little story about Ruth, does it - not clever of her to say such a thing it - was as a story of her to Cathy had said to her, some days before Care was in a picture I think was commonly good picture of it - it is with than girls' very productions

I reading material for my self & the children Walter will get through it is quite under matter - but I have not taken much work, I have got a lot of things, whether through here I'm writing & whether you be the chief I shall try - the having as pleas chapters to take of the page I must get a paper for I'll come to about - see my letters, I much seem to have time to get - there is as I go along - I rarely read a letter over, I pleased to any one within the family circle Eve has been uneasy all day with her ad- throat-pain, I ask how he will have long staves of all the wonders, he takes the and when with him though I was not him of its trouble, he's - he thought - to not go through it - all in the noble cause of peace -

It is wonderful to see how the building before us now is - very thick & solid with work - the back of timber has not quite though the difficulty from the water over and to get nothing before what as they are thistles withing before their own at least on a second - of their own pines - another way for paper but he will now stay on at the cottage - the keeping house this & he goes - of which another of & I have engaged a of which for another for a week or 10 days after the 20th of August for more water, & it has
