

Grassmere R.S.

26 June 1885.

My dear Harrington,

It is with extreme reluctance I feel myself obliged to forego spending a day or two with you in London. But I see clearly that it is essential I should stay here for the present.

I suppose you will have

Your letters sent or by from Chancery Office when on the 17th of August 1799?

I want for, before you go, to oblige me by a testimonial in re. the Edinburgh Chair.
They are being asked for and you see it is a positive to say a word about my connection with the cause. - I enclose the list of Lib^{rs} & D. on for enough to give me.

June 26/85. 9.7. a

By the way, I find it is the Home Secy, (Sir R. Cross) who appoints.

The children & their love, & with our very best regards, believe me to be in haste,

Yr faithful son!

J. F. Armstrong.
