

Visiting Wilsons in Toronto - Toronto - invited to lunch party - does not want to go - more anxious to get home

My dear dear Lou -

I am so glad to be going home again though everyone is very kind & nice - I wish Mr Carpenter had not urged that dinner upon me but it seemed shabby to insist upon not going - I quite hope to leave Wednesday morning - I shall unless anything makes me wait - till night - instead I want to see who will be least likely to marry Dr Wilson I feel is not very well today Mrs Greenes has brought off so much fuss upon her & I am at present more of a help than a burden in the hurry - I shall telegraph to you when I go to see about the Museum & ticket - Don't tell the young ones till I do.

I wish I could be off this very minute - but I need hurry in quite a different direction to lunch out -

With all love

Anna -
