

Little Lutes
Sunday evening
June 26/88

Dearest B -

I have at last got all the young ones to bed - & dinner time seems a long time ago. It always seems to me one of the crises of life that Sunday sh^d not come as the jewel of days, with a perfume special & peculiar, & a time of rest, but - be a special weariness to the flesh & anxiety to the spirit. That is one of the things that I always feel resist - somehow be my own fault - but I never have succeeded to seeing my way out of it -

The weather has been lovely & we had an address from Mr. Hoque here, wh - was very pleasant & simple, & an improve meant upon our fowls a young Shropshire protectioner who has spent the winter here shepherding the Inetis flock.

I had quite forgotten to send this bill back to you which is right & ought to be attended to -

Baby will very soon walk and indeed he quite often takes a few steps alone & is most expert at climbing rocks on the shore, & scrambling away from his caretakers.
He will not try to talk & insists upon calling horses, hew - waw as well as dogs & gets much excited over the numerous chaws wh. fly by.
Couraol is always overflowing with energy & activity not always devoid of mischief to Kuth. came screaming across the grass today - Couraol in hot pursuit with a long stick in his hand - I called to him stop stop you must not hurt Kuth - bli^{ly} replied slackening his speed "I was only playing that she was a cow"

I took time to church today & the children very poorly well - occupying the afternoon time by distinctly repeating some small children the Primal rules

I about like to breathe ever by asking for no money things, but - if you get give me the snaps I make notes of the children in - you will find them in the letter cupboard of my desk?
I only want the I belonging to Eric but I don't I have neglected them, I don't like to work them up if possible - the other I are also right I get state - the last few days I have been working with a pencil & notebook, not written, but through my head - the book the same opening words has no call to act that I know of perhaps something else not act, if I don't as I need not snap a comment about it - don't think it is worse than other things, in any case? we can complain of it in due form, not as

Something of Harris little friend Wm. Dugan is to be shown next week, so who will be met with a friend - I have heard nothing as to the plans of the Society or others - I am told that the house next door is let as likely to be built, hope it is not - the case - we went over it - a few days ago, I think it is as well if not better furnished than any house in the place. clothes carts in West street, nice catches & the stairs etc etc - I too had gone not yet the ground had business - well, we have heard from G. & W. at Cambridge & they are G. - caught up with W. at Birmingham & London.
