letters to thank you for & charming ones they were you have indeed been good about writing.
It seemed long before the first ones came, but the others have followed in rapid order & keep me able to follow your movements. There seems so much that is pleasant
in the country & journey I am truly sorry that you are prevented enjoying it by the worry of business.
The lucerns are supposed to be great smells & exciting pleasant-girls - I never met-one, or both, & even knewes them quite well I am surprised that a telegram from Banff cost so much as Florence finds it only costs - 75^{cts} to telegraph 10 words to Vancouver & 4^{cts} a word for extra words.

Wm is again apparently on the end of an offer from the Vancouver authorities & Van Horn has offered to keep his place open in the C.P.R. for a year if he likes to try it which seems very nice of him, I suppose he considers Vancouver a C.P.R. town so if the city fathers conclude to offer him that $200. a month which he says is his lowest figure, I suppose he will go - if it were not for the glare of Mr Van H.'s parades which has shown on the C.P.R. path - I suppose he is not so better of they do go, the Flowers will find too late that what was I buying the original in months a letter from George, no record along, and books records? I don't know if that is the proper spelling & level - day today, but we have had to mess for weather we cannot complain nothing's done has come & look very well indeed - I am and will to fix it in action - but - there was no high a wind yesterday that way was afraid of being smothered out my thinking is clear but need & pain but quite little with me & rest - level of nothing & pleasure & the

I have written your secret assailography letters, I am great achieved of them - but - my only great - time is evening, I sometimes I am really not able to think of connected thought - as to sit up & write them - still on the whole I think I rather has from the review than I add. though other masses better in of I believe very seldom news - it seems to make me nervous - Dapa Shi & Solite were out - as the very yesterday - working for some reported see - anonymous - but - they seem
