Dearest -
That you may not have to begin a new week without news of us I write a line this evening

The weather has improved the sun having shone since mid-day - I set with good promise of continued fine weather - The wind still remains very chilly. Baby's eye looks a little better tonight, & I hope will soon recover its usual appearance she has the points of two back teeth quite through & the third seems near, so she has I hope got through the most-worrisome time for these 4 back teeth - I never have found the eye teeth nearly so troublesome. By the way try & bring a "paint" with you, & let us try to have the vaccination over while we are here -

I also wish that Eric would bring me claw half a dozen French gospels - & two copies of the psalms - the larger of the two small sizes if on hand & one each of the English gospels - <sup>Pr. Billy & Co. 70 - Col. Thompson St.</sup> I think he has several among his own books wh- he can bring if he likes, but it might be simpler to buy with the French ones, as they are from 3 to 5 ct each. Also the para graph bible. - that I brought lately from the College. I have no spare out here, & need one - If there is a com mon civil Greek in the same alphabet as the egg-cups it might be brought, Clark has forgotten ness - I have arranged to give the washing out - I shall say it will be a comfort or leave more quiet in our way help the We miss you very much already - I shall admit - the days till you get back again - I do not know how in the way of work - I do not think I think and the ill spiritual health is yesterday reaching for the other children - I see the being that look of his picture he was handling it - if he does not care to go on with it - some of the others what I never asked Orhobale to send the children's papers taken out - I can easily send a card from here, if you are not calling there in any case - I hope you would see, all rights - & and be glad if you could let me know all - parcel if you hear before I do -

Truly
Yours
Anna
