Dearest - B -

Disappointed at not hearing from you today, but was much relieved to hear on Saturday that you had lost that horrid pain - As you say, small thanks to our dear dentist & yet that horrid business is on that - Beers Sprules himself upon -

We continue, much as when you left - those colds still being about - & Eric is threatening to go in for his N^o 1 cold, but - I hope it may be averted, a number of letters ~~from~~ you - one rather odd from one of your cousins I cannot remember who Army is - or w^od have called myself - will you please write a note & say the letter has followed you on your travels wh. will excuse me from inattention -

I had quite intended sending you a longer letter yesterday but - it proved one of the ^{last} days when baby wd not settle to sleep or feed & the young ones cd not go out - & all gether there was no peaceful quarter of an hour that I cd write

I went to town today with mother & have accomplished most of the necessary I mean - one more task will finish I hope I will send you a list of what I have done that you may not think nothing is done for people - I am most regretful about Eva, as I cd manage nothing for her if you see any justable trifle book - etc, do send it to her -

The house seems very laid without you & Eric having to die alone, makes our dinner - partly a very barbare one.

I actually went to table tea with Lady on Saturday all the evening Mrs. Levington leave Kestrel's son - all the boys & Eric at the Archdale when the body of the house pleased which means they & with the boys shd like to have been at - did not see Eric reported that he was respectfully active - in retreat - at present -

Our Mother continues to improve she has an hour Friday, we have a long Saturday, but is very weak - I shall see I ask again tomorrow -

Take care of yourself - I must see the Post now & tell Will not to take letters & the Caley that may account for my having today from you

Wrote a note to Laura last week & bought a beautiful pair of new charming quilted black & tan for Bette which will be sent in due time - I must find something for Laura first -

With much love

Lena

A letter among others for the return of the conversation during which I said - as after me for to begin, that they be rejoice & are have pleasure from & to connect it for 16 for I shall write & see when you are away - so that it may not contradict his mind, but want a likeness also -
