

Little Melis

July 15th/91

Dearest-Bernard,

The fishing expedition has come home quite successful each boy having got over 6 doz - fairly large trout - I had both of them set-tee, which felled the small table pretty well I did not expect them till later & intended to have the small children out of the way, however we managed well enough -

I have never told you that Mr Melis bath-house is in full operation & hot & cold baths can be had daily 5 tickets for $1.00 I think I have plenty towels - except your own rough ones the new room is capitall - & you told me to get things wh. I did - & then found there were plenty in your cupboard - there is no fastening on either & I had to hail one up a windy night of late - Eric has the new room
By the way Mrs Miss Phillips drawing will ever fail - I sh^d not like that to be ^{tasked} over Eric went as usual the Saturday after we went - I feared not class - I fancy the course was finished, but I did not at the time know that. Miss P. lives at Lachine - & the people at Shepherds Music Rooms will have her address, if more is needed.

The amount is $5.00

One more thing I need is a parcel in the hall cupboard at right hand 1st shelf, about the size of a folded night dress & marked, I think "blue-strept material for a coat for Lois" - I have just realized that she will probably have nothing respectable to go ^{shopping} in - & her sewing is done with her needle -

I am so glad that you are seeing to your teeth, & also that the accident to Rachel Cox has not proved serious - If you are in town w^d it be worth while to ask what the prospects are as to late trains for homecoming - If they wd only put on one at the other times of late dates & wd let us know in time I am sure they wd be patronized & have not given the matter serious thought - but - I feel vicarious & stay late, a doctor & well-meaning, & so very young lady - seem to me that may, especially if there is no help given - that I cannot think are among things to be thought of - The moral - weathered cottages, a threatening heavy rain between 12 & 27 - then showers & partial clearing after 4. I thought - raining very hard free of I were over of Mrs Frank's old has a large parquet table in her one public room. I am all out rained & played a very chess game - I had a note from Eva this P. M. It was long, continues to go out with her & the baby. It begins to talk of coming and - sure not - goes to see us all out - and today pleasant - certainly.

was kept in growing very active. I mother each day, she was in collation, one a letter this morning & trying to convert to the absent a letter on his own account - that was books & reading well. I am only had a little fine weather side w - left in very good case

W. J. G. looks wonderfully better, & though he did not get any republican remains, he got some other families & gave a good report of the & his health. Mrs. W. J. G. was here last night & I saw in a long history of his kind - well - to the people which he read only a head of 15 =
Am. Taylor odd's way she expected here tomorrow & Mary had asked her to drive her up to the station to meet the arrivals.

Campbell N. is very anxious to go to see Jackson's school he thinks little James & a teacher says he gets the boys all so nervous & noisy - & teaches arithmetic & Algebra or equivalent things from Jackson said the Deacons is, he understands to be the chief master of the school, very quiet & his school - really is going to be about the school, but not his enterprise & I am not out - a private school but not his enterprise & I am sure in England I shall go to him & see many other boys
sincerely yours
Anna
