Dear Bernard,

Received yours
of 21st last evening,
enclosing cheque which I shall have no difficulty in cashing. I have left a few dollars remaining of the money Anna gave me in charge. Clara draws
it as she needs it,
but seems very moderate in her demands.

All are well here
 We had boating on Saturday - a lovely day.
 We were all at church on Sunday, and Cousin Bernard & Ruth came over to us in the afternoon for reading.
 Yesterday there was a picnic at the Crawford's Fall for the young people Grandmother has invited

in a spring = board for the children, which they seem to enjoy.
The weather for a few days has been quite settled and pleasant.

I enclose a letter received yesterday from the dead-letter office.
I had supposed it had reached you, otherwise would have mentioned some of the matter again.
It might be worth

Whole quantity of anything similar to Bengel's Food can be had where you are. I asked Dyer to order some; but have heard nothing from him. There may be some preparation as good in the U. States.

I hope Eric's improved Symptoms will continue, and that you may have obtained useful information at Saranac. I shall address this to Anna in case it arrives before your return.

Love to Anna & Sue
Ever yours
