now I came to forget to write to you from Westport; for I had put everything ready early ad dressed etc. - I suppose it was because I was very stupid as I had to do the money in two bad days for myself, just when I had better be quiet - however I am better this morning, & hope to be all right. We left - I hope to leave Sunday a little before 3 - and regrets & expressions of kindness & interest from all the Coonrod family that were quite touching. The weather held tolerably fine as we were well wrapped up - & did not feel it cold till the last quarter of an hour - The Westport, we ground most-fresh & clean & comfortable. Eric went to bed directly after tea, & I lay down till time for the North train & then went-over to the Station to meet R. In the night it-snowed quite heavily among the mountains. & we cd see white patches among the hills across the Lake after breakfast, weather very windy & cold - Eric took a little turn on the gallery - & then lay down & Rankin wanted me to walk to the village, which I did, & at least managed to warm myself up though I was tired, We had some bother about the chairs, the station man declining to check them. but-finally R got the largest checked. & we had to wait half an hour for the train from R. in a frightfully hot & crowded waiting room. Then the hour to Plastering, no Obsequing soon car but I don't think that every much less we found the Yassarac car wait I got in a very shabby very old car. no Obsequing I found that part very very long I believe or my own account but under pulling for sure all things the hole means afterwards I began but entirely from clear was white with most from to midnight - I wish in night - hour small from but in the well along I looked still - with not pretty - the society were all out of quite different - from the various colours most yellow - Elizabeth town I the water country between me as Quillete - I the room

Residual - most - matter - I the room the Barber was not in waiting - and it - and said that we walked up - I and down for the baggage which I had - arrived - miles and Habsbach - which the station men had looked but - will I suppose them up on the way the head room see I there must directly to rooms, & Eric says across like the luggage. I am its arrival. The carpet very, tired, poor fellow but - seemed sleeping well before I went in I took a look at him at 3 or hours it - about 7 or 8 am writing this in hope of catching up before mail there is to catch

I was but, I got no answer from Hampshire house, I went to - I labored hard - the house built as soon as we paid but about Irene - We may be made here but it seems to me the end of the castle & very every outdoors, almost impossible to stand to stand bill - I can only wait for - I the way was open, & the really strength of the series open, & is very kind of I let him money, in his own way, though it is not much, & it is so great - comfort - to have him here to all the then children - white much much here to all the

of our house
