

Feb 28/95-

Dear Bernard,

I have not written because they were doing so, and there was little to
say. Matters are going on as usual,
and the children
all seem well. Henry sent up men to dismantle the chest

and to stop up the pipe, which they have done; but have not replaced it. He promises ~~promises~~ to attend to it at once, and if he hangs fire I
shall jog his memory.
The weather after you left became wet and disagreeable,
but it has mended

now and is pleasant,

Wishing you and Anna all comfort
and happiness in your trip I remain

Yours ever

J. M. Dawson
