Little Duet's

Tuesday June 22nd

June 22

1897

Dearest,

I have been undecided whether to telegraph to you or no, as the bare news would scarcely be reassuring. Woffy & Eup both gave you their last day evening as Tuesday morning Woffy I fancy had his worst day before I arrived. But since he has been doing excellently well the rash is fully out & he is quiet & comfortable, not-hungry, but not-distressed, or nervous, & sleeping well. He has had a little sickness at his stomach & a little diarrhoea, but only what has helped him through.
Eup has been very sick eyes inflamed, mouth sore & very oppressed. But now good & patient, & I think the worst is over, & that she will probably be greatly relieved tomorrow - Lark after sneezing, having red eyes cough & so on, seems perfectly well today, except - not very hungry but she spent the day in bed. I fancy she has it - but will not show for a day or two yet - Measles has been very prevalent here, early in the spring, so I cannot be credited with originating it.

I do hope that little Bernard goes on well. & is not too tired by the glare of the festival - Wagon's harness is gay with lanterns, & the Boney's in addition to illuminating are setting off some rather good rockets - our plays looked very festive through the day but we are out of it - tonight, I did not credit any fuss for the sick ones - They have many flags in their raucous & badges pinned to their pillows as their jubilee, as I told you I will keep Kate till Saturday in any case, if all is going well, do not go up there, if you feel it necessary to delay coming, tell me, - week, is - so - difficultly as to say, when million of thought to sleep in the same place. We I never have mentioned any of seeing to the house at - home - I shall I say, when never to feel - in several days, weeks & months any information on it - the subject must be settled down as they will be determined by matters. I feel it as I in Council's explanation said - before I left -

I don't know how I forget all about - Clara's Mother's well - my - I quite well - I it was left in Clara's years - I shall have to travel & get - of suitable size at - I say's returning the one Clara's own - been - they are nearly over - I will want a bit of money -

Heine has arranged I was sent in a bag a great weight - Pickers as usual has done more of the things he ought - sent in that bale Sunday - Alan had cleaned the base in victrol - this was, I worked another ^{month} before having the kitchen done - that was my way - I and Jim had a list - what they had he asked he had done these things - one bag was in I have done all these & it is to say the not - I am that full as of the other is the ^{other} side house, of the bag works him is the library - 153 not all goes on as I hope the little ones well I no quite ready to receive question. There was a hundred can said the did not sleep till 4. A. M. houses work well by it - mother about something she wanted. I ground it - I will have ^{the} ^{man} ^{said} ~~these~~ ^{the} ^{man} ^{said} every night - he was very restless through² the night, owing to itchininess.

Ever too is much better, she was very wretched yesterday complained that her teeth were so heavy, you can imagine how weary she must have felt.

Lai's does not seem ill at all, but has a few little spots just showing, I think the prospect is that she will get off lightly - The disease here has been of a very mild type & has scarcely rick at all - Mopsy is as good & contented & serene as can be - The real trouble will be when they are up.

Let our know as soon & as definitely as you can of plans.

Loveingly Anne
