Dear Mr. W.

I received your first letter today, & am delighted to hear the patient continues so well. I trust the glaries of the phulice are all that I have expected, that M. K. on the top of the mountain, as he seen from the point as near there, I don't think the rocks & so on etc. have been fine. The patient go on well Wally is as good as can be & seems quite comfortable. This I think is undoubtedly trying to take time & has been kept in bed, but tonight there seems only a few pieces of rash on his face, & really is not ill. I somewhat regretfully acquiesces ~~in~~ ^{to} lady dint, I have ~~partaken~~ ^{partaken} liquor & have also: I cannot ~~quite~~ ^{quite} come out tomorrow to know that she has heard them, it will be well: ever has been very ~~the~~ quite prostrate, ~~feeling~~ ^{feeling} high & has very hard days, ~~and~~ ^{and} not ~~quite~~ new to be spoken to. She looks quite relieved tonight & the fits are beginning to fade: she looks thin & shrunken, poor little maiden I have a good deal of energy, but I don't think it will take long to pick up ~~her~~ now they are past again.

I am expecting the children on Friday as we arrived Monday ~~it~~ ^{it} seems due to come Tuesday or after with her M. it will be all right, we are very well of with Clara & Kate - ~~Wm~~ ^{Wm} is in ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~house~~ ^{house} alone, as we wanted better to be quiet - So I left and sleeping in Kuth's room I laid in the boys - there were many more nests in the boys - I saw - but I was I will try I decided - the boys were I was very thing - I said - in it I was I was Kuth's room - I think very likely my I heard her by her low voice I heard the mother - there are the things that are very over the mother of Kuth, also only I am to her nest - to have a picture At the nests in her no great noise I was so much - I was so to bring me Another went a talk to the other that is lying on the left of the mother in the left there behind the olding room near her I sing - was like cloth, also a large chimney I heard - my nest - to be at home & the I heard most of them - I thought - I was heard - a few more I heard the smallest was with things, I was with things - also, any of the white rough trails that never were left - things can get there for with the tall cliffs & some sort of trap in them only two here = I was very busy in the weeks since on his feet marked 24 I was gone for a long - regular but I had accepted had been in certain, I I was two weeks - but - cause I had Why were not in matters - the power And as well though only a few of them I don't know as there is a lot of very different I had the other down in the paper like this In rocky way on them we make it seem much better not - and a warning should The old on I always will hold out for with me this great = I wish I had the perhaps I left on the mantle piece - but the days I can get it - here I forgot to ask though - I have not find among my things get partly because our Stebbins brought his plaster sheet - and I had only take one sheet

& the other only arrived late in the afternoon - but I hope to sort it up tomorrow I wish I knew if there was any varnish & stain I wd so much like to have the dining room floor & passage varnished while children in bed, & no one about - the chance is a rare opportunity! To morrow coming dawn Sat.
I trust - the Necks have not had the measles - that will be one comfort.

No one else will want to go near us for weeks - & we shall be able to have Mrs M - delightfully quiet as she wd like -

Loveingly
Anna
