

Little Notes

Aug. 15th

1897

Dearest Bernard

I fear you must have looked with disappointment in the letter box. I only hope that you have been too busy to really remark no news from Miles - the just cause of his absence I thought I had to write being taking up by unexpected calls & the mails not waiting for me.
Wafia has had a note from her letter in your care to me you delivered, so I have been able to trace your doings so far -

Peckey reappeared about 10^o Friday morning looking as fresh & being quite as brisk as usual - There is little to chronicle here - the usual day practice Gardner Blackader's hay cart party came off Saturday with the usual cake & candy.

Con. got 3^d in his cake which I at once locked up, but as he broke a pane of glass at Mr. Mad's I was too proud to put it in himself, he had to pay out 50^{cts} which was ustarily an undue charge - I then leaves his gun money rather wanting. A tobacco exhibition took place Saturday evening at the town hall. I was employed to send Keith for a gipsy, & then to saddle something else - but through Miss Weyford was stage manager - I refused - I don't know that it is even well to let them go to these things, when I consider their unwholesome in vanity & self-consciousness.

My wife & I are not constantly to remember myself, but to forget myself & no man ever the 1st part of his own to look at appeared with a smile of Roman society to set of his property & his of old no of the laws, so however I would up to the highest level of my hopes to find It - I was my hope a regular with the being that I a necessary as the same and of justice. I am sure of the way I found the way long enough in my I mean the word of a true friend of the and of the. It is their about two in other words - which makes the people talk of how is going I am sure of the things which are
I am sure of the things which are
I am sure of the things which are

As soon as I had written, Miss Brown has written to me and she is able to see and is of course not here and writes it and I suppose the As - well have a Office - his continued early evening makes her - say the summer is over I on the first - whether weather will upon some of the weather will As far as I can make out - is nearly well - I have nothing but all the family are very on the subject - I can not with much more
