Dearest B -

We have a very quiet-house now, but have not been very much in it owing to our thing & another. Corby is, past all her restlessness & weariness, & troubles & lies quite unconscious & quiet - partly weakness, partly the bromide - she still swallows spoonfuls of brandy & water, or bromide - now & then, & nurse Daelder says she may pull through another night, but she is practically done with this life, & I like to think of her waking up in the better life, & all the dear ones welcoming her there - She was a most-loving soul.

I am sorry that our flight is going to take Sunday night, as he we know exactly what ought to be done - Who is the other executor I thought - papa - some one said you are Lewis? Kamever & Lutis coming to see me this 12 m. The main is the main question, whether it can be given up or not? If it can we must clear the thing out there are very few & of little value with one or two exceptions - what about piano, we you think it worth while to take it to the sea. Caroly herself suggested this, I fancy it is lighter than the one we had, or shall I have it removed to Lindsey & wait there till you see about it? Also ask Kate Mc C - I can't have not-been able to arrange between I C. not give Kate & she of course we have to give notice - I still have both Kate & Lizzie for Caroly's maid goes tomorrow & I shall have to send Kate & there for a few days -

Papa had another attack yesterday & very clown today.

Mr. Fleet says
Mr. Sandherr wanted to sell him a Buick last year I will telephone to him & find out He says Mrs. O's name will be on the hands of the estate - till the end of the year - unless by Mr. Mauris consent to take it - If we have George talks of sending down in easy carriage for him - Co we not hire Artie's old Doctor's carriage, & then use Co horse & truck his horse - to pull it. In that way the place to keep it - wd be secured.

Woffe has written to ask you to come down with him, quite sneakily, except it may do Geo-Himself good. Flornet said he was looking very tired & pale.

Another violent - thunder storm yesterday - & cooler today -

I was quite relieved to hear that the party arrived well for Woffy had clear - & Max looked very badly after 3 days of the rain & her time added.

I hope the Dr. Callum, will prove clever & managing - amid a rather chaotic condition -

Dr Birbitt said Ruth's nose was much better, to spray it less far off - 3 weeks, & then blow down till fall when he wd see again

I think her old enemy of spraying did real harm & her frantic blowing - he has told her how to manage that

I do hope you went here to come up before I go down.
I will not feel very easy abt.
the boys - they went - they'll be a fear =

I think I c^d make short work of Carpy's effects - if there is money enough - I had her sign a chq^r for $1000 the last day she could, as her money had run out so I have paid all the sundries & adds & bills as we went on.

Mrs. Hail says there is only one outside bill - for plumbing of - a trifling nature

Kull is enjoying repose & relief from study & greatly wants sleep. abt. 11 hrs last night & was much the better =
